PREFACE

The DE LA SALLE HYMNAL is offered to the Catholic public in the sincere hope that it may be a valuable aid in religious training. In these days of scientific education, it is trite to say that the outward expression of emotion is an effective means of developing that very emotion. The rites and ceremonies of Holy Mother Church have taught this truth from the beginning. It is, then, of great importance that the impression be good and the emotion noble. This Hymnal aims to secure both results. It has retained what was good in its predecessor, the Catholic Youth's Hymn Book, while studiously avoiding its defects.

1. The DE LA SALLE HYMNAL conforms to the Motu Proprio of Pope Pius X on Church Music.

2. Every tune in the book is either of acknowledged worth as music or has long been associated with Catholic traditions in this country.

3. The editorial file has been applied unsparingly to all the vernacular verses, in order to secure both good English and conformity to the musical rhythm of the hymns.

4. Nearly all the hymns have been written for use by either a unison or a four part chorus.

5. The harmonization, while in full accord with artistic standards, is yet so simple as to fall within the limits of the average children's choir or school chorus.

6. The accompaniment has in every case been adapted to the organ. Piano arrangements have been ruthlessly excluded.

7. The pitch of each hymn has been placed low enough to suit the range of boys' voices and facilitate congregational singing.

To all who have in any way helped in the preparation of this book, cordial thanks are herewith extended; in particular, to the Basilian Fathers of Toronto for permission to use numbers 20, 40, and 215; to the Benedictine Fathers for permission to include hymns by members of their order; to Professor Joseph G Marcks for timely aid and for the use of his own compositions; to Professor Wenzel A. Raboch both for careful revision of the harmonization of the entire book and for permission to include several hymns and a Mass of his own composition; and to Messrs. J. Fischer & Brother for valuable suggestions, careful supervision of proof, and generous permission to use many of their copyrighted publications.

The Manuscripts of the DE LA SALLE HYMNAL were carefully and critically read by a diocesan priest and a religious priest, both of acknowledged authority. We regret that neither, in his modesty, would permit the publication of his name. This book shows the fruits of their generous labor, and to each of them we herewith offer our most sincere thanks.

The numbers contained in the Appendix, while not Church Music in the proper sense of the term, have been included by request as being suitable for reunions of a more or less religious character.

The Index embodies the results of serious effort to trace words and tunes to their source. In this respect the Catholic Church Hymnal of J. Fischer & Brother and the Westminster Hymnal were both helpful. It is to be hoped that in a later edition many of the present blanks may be filled.

As the singing of hymns is pre-eminently a religious act, the attention of young and the old is called to the Indulgences announced below. May all who use this book experience the hallowed emotions of St. Augustine as he listened to Christian Psalmody, and strive to emulate the example of St. Philip Neri in promoting the effectiveness of Catholic Hymns.

New York, Feast of the Holy Rosary, 1913.

INDULGENCES

Popes Pius VII and Pius IX, by rescripts dated respectively June, 1817, and April, 1858, have granted partial indulgences of one year and of one hundred days to all the faithful who sing hymns piously in a church or oratory, and to those who teach them so to sing, provided that these hymns be approved by ecclesiastical authority. A plenary indulgence may be gained once a month on the ordinary conditions.

The DE LA SALLE HYMNAL has received the requisite approbation.

STABAT MATER N° 1

English Version

1.

At the cross her station keeping,
Stood the mournful Mother weeping,
Close to Jesus to the last;
Through her heart, His sorrow sharing,
All His bitter anguish bearing,
Now at length the sword has passed.

2.

Oh how sad and sore distressed
Was that Mother, ever-blessed
Of the Sole-begotten One!
How she stood in desolation,
Gazing at the desecration
Of her dying glorious Son!

3.

Who could mark, from tears refraining,
Christ's dear Mother uncomplaining,
In so great a sorrow bowed?
Who, unmoved, behold her languish
Underneath His cross of anguish,
'Mid the fierce, unpitying crowd?

4.

For His people's sins rejected,
She, her Jesus, unprotected,
Saw with thorns, with scourges rent,
Saw her Son from judgment taken,
Her Beloved in death forsaken,
Till His spirit forth He sent.

5.

Fount of love and holy sorrow,
Mother, may my spirit borrow
Somewhat of thy woe profound;
Unto Christ, with pure emotion,
Raise my contrite heart's devotion,
Love to read in every wound.

6.

Those five wounds on Jesus smitten,
Mother, in my heart be written,
Deep as in thine own they be:
Thou, my Saviour's cross who bearest,
Thou, thy Son's rebuke who sharest,
Let me share them both with thee.

7.

In the passion of my Maker,
Be my sinful soul partaker,
Weep till death, and weep with thee;
Mine with thee be that sad station,
There to watch the great salvation
Wrought upon th' atoning tree.

Virgin thou of virgins fairest,
May the bitter woe thou sharest
Make on me impression deep:
Thus Christ's dying may I carry,
With Him in His passion tarry,
And His wounds in memory keep.

9.

May His wounds transfix me wholly,
May His cross and life-blood holy
Ebriate my heart and mind;
Thus inflamed with pure affection,
In the Virgin's Son protection
May I at the judgment find.

10.

When in death my limbs are failing,
Let Thy Mother's prayer prevailing
Lift me, Jesus, to Thy throne;
To my parting soul be given
Entrance through the gate of Heaven.
There confess me for Thine own.

Amen

The musical score consists of five systems of music. The top system has three staves: soprano (treble clef), alto (C-clef), and bass (F-clef). The middle system has three staves: soprano, alto, and bass. The bottom system has two staves: soprano and bass. The fifth system starts with a soprano staff and continues with a bass staff. The music is in common time, with various note values including eighth and sixteenth notes. The key signature changes from G major (no sharps or flats) to E major (one sharp) and then to B-flat major (two flats) at the end. The basso continuo part is indicated by a bass staff with a bassoon-like symbol and includes a bassoon part with slurs and grace notes.

badly done & superfluous
